Egg Party Adventure (1)

Jenny 16.10.26 -17.10.26

Reading Text

Jennie likes playing Egg Party after school too!

Lily is eight years old. She likes playing Egg Party after school.

In the game, Lily is a small egg. She runs, jumps, and rolls. Today, Lily plays with her friend, Mia. They go to a colourful party island.

across a bridge

First, Lily jumps over a big blue ball. Then, she runs across a bridge. Oh no! The bridge moves! Lily falls into the water, but she laughs.

fool

laugh/f/

Next, Lily and Mia find a little box. Inside, there is a yellow star. They are very happy. At the end of the game, Lily gets a new pink hat for her egg.

reason

Lily says, "Egg Party is fun because I can play and learn with my friends!"

Why? Beacuse I can earn (v.) so many points.

Vocabulary

Match the word to its meaning.

1. colourful _____
2. bridge _____
3. falls _____
4. box _____
5. happy _____
6. friend _____

the end... <--> start

game over

a. a person you like and play with

b. a small thing that holds objects

c. with many colours

d. goes down by accident

e. feeling good and glad

f. something you walk over to cross water or a road

Short Answers

Write short answers.

1. How old is Lily?

2. What game does Lily like?

3. Who does Lily play with?

4. What colour is the big ball?

5. What is inside the little box?

6. What does Lily get at the end of the game?

Grammar Focus: Verbs

A verb is an action word.

Examples: cry, sleep

A. Circle the action words.

1. Lily runs across a bridge.
2. The star is yellow.
3. Lily jumps over the ball.
4. Mia and Lily play together.
5. The egg is small.

B. Complete the sentences with the correct word.

Word bank: run, jumps, play, rolls

1. Lily _____ with her friend.
2. The egg _____ over the floor.
3. Lily _____ over the blue ball.
4. Lily and Mia _____ Egg Party.

Creative Drawing

Draw your own Egg Party character below.

Give your egg a name: _____

Draw:

- a colourful hat
- a fun game area
- one friend
- one obstacle, such as a ball, bridge, or water

After drawing, write one sentence:

My egg is _____.